EXPLORE

Linn-Benton Community College is in the state of Oregon, which is in the Pacific Northwest and can be reached via a two-hour flight from Los Angeles or a 40-minute flight from Seattle. Oregon is known for its beautiful mountains, evergreen forests, and Pacific ocean beaches! We are also known as the "Silicon Forest" of the Northwest, with many high-tech companies such as Intel, HP and Google, and apparel companies Nike, Columbia Sportswear and Adidas located here! Here are some ways you can enjoy your time here:

Hiking, biking, water sports

Picnics at the beach

Snow sports in the mountains

Safety of a small town but close to big cities!

Enjoy being a Roadrunner!

At LBCC, there are many activities, clubs, and co-curricular programs in which you can participate. You can catch a college game and cheer on our sports teams, or attend a concert from our award-winning choirs!

After class, meet with your classmates to study in one of the student lounges on campus. The college Library and Learning Center are also great places to meet and study!

Grab a bite to eat at the Commons cafeteria, the Courtyard Cafe, the Campus Store, or the Roastrunners Coffee Shop on campus. Enjoy great food at affordable prices!

LBCC is a leader in university transfer.

Starting your college education at a community college is a smart choice! You can save thousands of dollars in tuition costs while attending your first two years here. When you finish, you can transfer your LBCC credits to most universities very easily to complete your four-year bachelor's degree!
